

Alliance New Product Quality Procedure (ANPQP)

Version 3.0

Learn the latest requirements of the Renault-Nissan Alliance process for parts suppliers. This 2 day course covers a detailed exploration of the requirements of the latest procedures.

ANPQP PROGRAMME

The training is a blend of presentation and interactive exercises. The course will discuss the requirements of the Alliance and any specifics for both Renault and Nissan from initial project planning, through all phases to start of production and product end of life.

An understanding of ANPQP is a vital and essential requirement for all suppliers of the Renault-Nissan Alliance.

The course finishes with a knowledge test and certification.

Renault-Nissan Consulting has been approved by Renault and Nissan to deliver this Alliance training. The consultant who will deliver this training has significant experience in the subject and is approved to deliver this training by Renault and Nissan.
